Did you know?

Read these interesting facts about structures and construction with a parent, carer or teacher.

There are lots of different structures in the world around us. These include houses, bridges and towers.

People live in lots of different types of home. Features of homes includes walls, doors, windows, roofs, garages and gardens.

Structures are designed by architects and built by construction workers.

There are many jobs on a construction site, including bricklayer, carpenter and roofer.

Structures are made from different materials, including brick, wood, glass, wood, plastic and metal.

Materials have special properties, which make them useful for different jobs.

Downloaded by Wells at Shepton Beauchamp Church of England Primary School on 24/05/22
Copyright © 2022 Cornerstones Education Limited

Key vocabulary

Explore these words together. Talk with an adult about what each word means and use the words in a sentence or as you play.

architect

brick

bridge

bricklayer

build

carpenter

construction site

design

door

garage

garden

glass

house

material

metal

plastic

roofer

roof

tower

wall

window

wood

Downloaded by Wells at Shepton Beauchamp Church of England Primary School on 24/05/22
Copyright © 2022 Cornerstones Education Limited